

Early Literacy Fun: June 2017

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
June is a great time to review what your child knows about the alphabet, letters, syllables, and sentences.				1	2 Say Friday! How many syllables? What is the first sound? What is the last sound?	3
4 Ask your child to put words together to make a new word: sun + hat snow + suit rain + bow bird + house	5	6 	7	8 At breakfast have your child tell you the beginning sounds for the foods he/she is eating (e.g., banana, egg, toast, etc.).	9 PA Day	10 Collect several items from your refrigerator. Sort them into groups according to the number of syllables.
11	12 Name 5 letters. Now think of a word that begins with each one of the letters (e.g., b-ball, z-zebra, r-read).	13 Think of as many bugs as you can and clap out the syllables (e.g., caterpillar, ladybug, ant, cricket, beetle).	14	15 Play secret word. Slowly sound out a word (e.g., b-u-s, h-ou-se, f-r-o-g, m-e) and have your child guess the secret word.	16 	17
18 Happy Father's Day! Help your child make a card for his/her father, grandfather, uncle or friend.	19 	20	21 First Day of Summer! 	22	23 Can you think of words that have the /s/ sounds at the end? (e.g., grass, us, hiss, chess, etc.)	24 Do your favourite activity from this calendar one more time!
25 Play an iPad game such as "Phonics Awareness" by Bugbrained.	26 Think of 10 words that rhyme with 'cat'. Can you write some of these words?	27	28 Say 10 alphabet sounds. Have your child write the letter for each of the sounds.	29 	30
